

5th Grade Battle of the Books

Romeo District Library

Battle of the Books is a reading competition for 5th graders. Teams of 3, 4, or 5 5th graders work together to read and prepare for the Battle on March 9th at the Graubner branch of the Romeo District Library. The librarians have chosen ten titles from a variety of genres and reading levels for this competition.

All titles are available in paperback, and multiple copies of each title are available at the library.
