New Looks, Same Great Libraries!

There are exciting changes happening throughout Romeo District Library!

New looks all around:

- new carpet at the Kezar Branch
- new study rooms and small meeting rooms in the Adult Department at the Graubner Branch
- construction underway at the west end of the Graubner Branch as we continue to improve your library

Director Claire Meeker

586-752-0603 x1018

claire@romeodistrictlibrary.org

The same great libraries you know and love:

- The newest books, movies, and other materials added to our collection as quickly as possible
- Convenient digital options, including ebooks and downloadable audiobooks
- Expanded access to information through our online databases
- A growing Library of Things, featuring hotspots, Chromebooks, a projector, Giant Jenga & more
- Home delivery service for patrons who are unable to visit the library
- Engaging programs for all ages, including book discussion groups, craft classes, and storytimes
- An easy and convenient library app: just search “Suburban Library Cooperative” in your favorite app store
- And, as always, exceptional customer service from our dedicated staff

I am incredibly proud of our team and all we do to provide the best possible library experience. We are fortunate to have a supportive community, a dedicated Board of Trustees, and employees who are passionate about serving our patrons every day. Thank you for being part of our library community. We look forward to welcoming you—whether you’re visiting one of our refreshed spaces, attending a program, or discovering your next great read.

See you at the library!
